

Nominee Information for distribution

Name: Jamie Vernon (Retired)

Career Overview

Proudly I was with the NSW for more than 40 years as a serving career paramedic. I began my career as a trainee paramedic and at the completion of my career I was at Deputy Commissioners level. I have been a member of the APF since the Funds inception, always believing in the core values of the APF.

Reason for standing

Provide a brief statement on your reason for standing, including what value you will bring to the Board, in no more than 50 words (your 'election pitch')

As a career paramedic with my later years being in senior management, I believe I contribute an array of experience and expertise – knowledge I can apply to the APF assisting with the continued success it is achieving. I have a passion for the welfare and well being of our AFP members and families.
